NEUTRAL PLATFORM TO DISCUSS ISSUES

The Saint Louis University Supreme Student Council, in partnership with Commission on Elections, launched the Voter's Education Series on March 5, 2022. As the country faces the impact of the health crisis brought about by the pandemic, partnered with the growing economic crisis, the student body acknowledges that the youth's active participation in the country's political activities is needed. Thus, the Voter's Education Series was launched. The activity encourages youth to assess the candidates and their respective political platforms. The end goal is to vote for the candidate with the best platform for the country. The activity was graced by the former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the Philippines, Maria Lourdes Sereno. The Youth Coordinator of TamaKa accompanied her, Tamang Kandidato sa Eleksyon, Mr. James Rodriguez. The Education Series was conducted via Zoom and was streamed via Facebook.
